Hello Families,

Happy Sunday everyone! It is definitely a soggy one out there today and apparently all week. Here is the weekly newsletter once again. Please remember that if you have any questions regarding your child's education, your first connection should be with their teacher. If after doing this, your question is not answered to your satisfaction, then you can reach out to Administration for support. Thank you everyone for your attention to this procedure.

Ruth King students are hard at work. Report cards will be out soon as we head into the holidays. Expect to get your child's report card on December 20th. We will be sending paper copies home but you will also have access to them on MyEd through the parent portal.

Fresh for You arrived this past week. Hopefully everyone picked up their bags of fresh produce. Thank you to everyone who helped pack the bags of food and especially to Mr. Dranchuk and Ms. Chan who organized the event.

A couple of Mrs. Gronow's little munchkins. Look how happy they are!
